

Coaches

The midpoint of the regular season is upon us, and it is time to turn our attention to evaluating our players for the upcoming Select season.

Below is the form for recommending players for the Select program. We are looking for quality players who also demonstrate the AYSO philosophies (good sportsmanship, fair play, etc.) Adherence to AYSO philosophy is extremely important as these children are representing our Region.

YOUR LIST OF NOMINEES MUST BE KEPT CONFIDENTIAL. SELECT NOMINEES ARE NOT TO BE DISCUSSED WITH PLAYERS & PARENTS.

Also included is an area for you to indicate your interest in coaching a Select team. As published in the Regional Guidelines, Head coaches for Select teams will be selected based on the following:

1. Indicated interested in coaching a Select team below.
2. Are a regular season coach.
3. Certified to coach at the appropriate age div.
4. Adherence to the philosophies and policies of AYSO.
5. Ability to manage a Select team.
6. Overall coaching/training skills & experience.
7. Attitude.
8. Coach meeting attendance.

Nominations must be completed and returned to the coaching staff!

Select Coach Process

Members for the Concord AYSO Board create a Select Coach list of potential Coaches for a given age div. using the following guidelines:

1. A coach has indicated on the Select Player Nomination Form that they are interested in coaching a Select Team
2. Are a regular season coach
3. Certified to coach at the appropriate age div
4. Attendance to coaches meetings
5. Ability to manage a Select team
6. Overall coaching/training skills
7. Attitude

Process in building a Select Team

IMPORTANT NOTE:

ALL Coaches--players & parents must NOT be informed of which players are nominated or not for select. The reason for this is to not set expectations. SELECT Coaches -- Under no circumstances are you to approach players, parents or anyone with the exception of the coach regarding select season. The select coaches should also make sure that coaches that are approached are made sure they keep their code of silence.

1. All regular season coach must complete the Select Player Nomination Form
2. The select coach is given all the player nominations forms for the appropriate age div
3. The select coach scouts the nominated players during a match determining which players to select based on various criteria (ie: skill, attitude, parents, etc)
4. Once the regular season is over & only over, the select coach then can call the parents of the selected player to inquire about their interest in having their child play select.

The select team is formed - have a great season!
